AFFIDAVIT IN SUPPORT OF CRIMINAL COMPLAINT

Case No.

I, ANDREW J. JASIE, being duly sworn, depose and state that:

INTRODUCTION

1. I am a Task Force Officer with the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), and I am assigned to the Rochester, New York Resident Agency. I have been assigned as a Task Force Officer with the FBI since December of 2014. I have been employed by the New York State Police for approximately 21 years and assigned as an Investigator approximately 16 years. As part of my professional experience, I have participated in state and federal investigations involving bank robbery, Hobbs Act robbery, fugitives, and illegal drug trafficking. I further state that I am an “investigative or law enforcement officer of the United States” within the meaning of 18 U.S.C. § 2510(7), that is, an officer of the United States who is empowered by law to conduct investigations of and to make arrests for offenses enumerated in 18 U.S.C. § 2516.

2. This affidavit is submitted in support of a criminal complaint and arrest warrant against ADAM GREEN (hereinafter, “GREEN”) for civil disorder, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 231(a)(3). As set forth below, there is probable cause to believe that GREEN struck a City of Rochester Police Department (RPD) officer in the head and helmet with a piece of wood for the intended purpose of obstructing, impeding, or interfering in a violent manner with such law enforcement officer; that he did so knowingly; and that he did so during a civil disorder that obstructed, delayed and adversely affected interstate commerce.

3. The assertions made herein are based solely upon my personal knowledge or upon information I have received from other law enforcement agents who are involved in this investigation. Further, I have had discussions with officers involved in this investigation who have confirmed the accuracy of the information contained within this affidavit. Since this affidavit is being submitted for a limited purpose, I have not included each and every fact I know concerning this investigation. Rather, I have set forth only those facts that relate to the issue of whether probable cause exists to believe the defendant committed the above-mentioned offense.

APPLICABLE LAW

4. Section 231(a)(3) provides, in pertinent part, that “whoever commits or attempts to commit any act to obstruct, impede, or interfere with any . . . law enforcement officer lawfully engaged in the lawful performance of his official duties incident to and during the commission of a civil disorder which in any way or degree obstructs, delays, or adversely affects commerce or the movement of any article or commodity in commerce . . . shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than five years or both.” “The term ‘civil disorder’ means any public disturbance involving acts of violence by assemblages of three or more persons, which causes an immediate danger of or results in damage or injury to the property or person of any other individual.” 18 U.S.C. § 232(1). “The term ‘law enforcement officer’ means any officer or employee of . . . any State [or] any political subdivision of a State . . . while engaged in the enforcement or prosecution of any of the criminal laws of . . . a State [or] any political subdivision of a State.” 18 U.S.C. § 232(7).

PROBABLE CAUSE

5. On or about September 2, 2020, it was publicly revealed that Daniel Prude died on March 30, 2020, one week after an encounter with RPD police officers. In the wake of that public disclosure, there were two nights of violent protests in the City of Rochester that resulted in property damage and physical injury to several RPD police officers. During the protests on September 4, 2020, a group of protesters damaged property and turned over tables at two restaurants in the City of Rochester, causing numerous patrons to leave. In connection with the protests on September 5, 2020, law enforcement shut down Exit 14 on Interstate 490 in the City of Rochester, which is the exit for Broad Street and Plymouth Avenue near RPD headquarters, for approximately eight hours and the State Street exit on the Inner Loop in the City of Rochester for approximately an hour.

6. During the evening of September 5, 2020, a group of approximately 1,500 protesters gathered near RPD headquarters, which is located at 185 Exchange Boulevard in the City of Rochester. Once the group arrived, they gathered at the intersection of Broad Street and Exchange Boulevard (which is located a block north of RPD headquarters), where they blocked all lanes of traffic on Broad Street and all lanes of traffic on Exchange Boulevard between Broad Street and Main Street. RPD officers manned metal barricades on the south side of the intersection of Broad Street and Exchange Boulevard. At various times over the course of approximately two hours, some members of the group hurled rocks, bottles, lit fireworks, and other objects at police officers standing on the southern side of the intersection. Some members of the group also shined flashlights and pointed lasers at the police officers. The group was repeatedly asked by an RPD sound truck to move onto the sidewalks and leave the area or be subject to arrest for Disorderly Conduct for impeding traffic. After RPD repeatedly directed the group to leave the area, several members of the group disregarded those messages, remained in the streets, and continued to block the intersection. GREEN – who was wearing a black helmet and carrying a makeshift wooden shield – was part of the group that refused to disperse.

7. Thereafter, RPD declared an unlawful assembly due to several people in the crowd committing criminal activity, which included throwing rocks, bottles, lit fireworks and other objects, as well as pointing lasers, at officers.

8. RPD Officer Geoffrey Quinn was part of a group of officers assigned to assist with crowd control at the intersection of Broad Street and Exchange Boulevard. He was wearing a riot helmet and markings on his clothing that clearly identified him as a police officer. In an effort to clear the intersection, Officer Quinn and other RPD officers approached the remaining members of the crowd who refused to leave. As Officer Quinn approached GREEN, GREEN swung the wooden shield that he was carrying, striking Officer Quinn in the forehead portion of his helmet. After being told he was under arrest, GREEN resisted and fought with Officer Quinn and another officer who was assisting Officer Quinn. GREEN was ultimately handcuffed and arrested. Officer Quinn sustained a cut and abrasion on the bridge of his nose from being struck in the head by the wooden shield.

CONCLUSION

9. Based on the above information, there is probable cause to believe that, on September 5, 2020, in the Western District of New York, ADAM GREEN knowingly and intentionally obstructed, impeded, and interfered – and attempted to obstruct, impede, and interfere – with a law enforcement officer who was engaged in the lawful performance of his official duties when GREEN struck an RPD Officer in the head and helmet with a piece of wood while participating in the blocking of traffic on public streets; and that these actions occurred during a civil disorder that obstructed, delayed and adversely affected interstate commerce, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 231(a)(3).
